EXTRA JUROR TAKES SEAT IN SNOOK TRIAL

C. F. Butche, Reported Ill, Excused by Judge.

CASE NEAR END

Defense Arguments Under Way in Hix Slaying.

By James L. Kilgallen, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

COURTROOM, COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 14.—Juror No. 3 in the Snook case, C. F. Butche, a carpenter, reported ill today and the thirteenth, or emergency, juror, Newton L. Tracey, a railroad foreman, was substituted in his place in the jury box by agreement of counsel for both sides and the defendant himself, Dr. James H. Snook.

Snook Accepts Thirteenth Juror. Snook, who is on trial for the murder of Miss Theora Hix, co-defendant, was asked by Judge Henry L. Scarlett if he was satisfied with the new juror.

"I am," replied Snook. Juror Butche was seized by a bilious attack which would incapacitate him indefinitely. Consequently, Judge Scarlett informed the other jurors, "he has been removed from further consideration in the case."

Then with Tracey sitting as juror No. 8, Defense Attorney Max C. Seyfert began, at 9:33 a. m., the second of the three closing defense arguments to the jury.

Seyfert Scores Prosecutors. Attorney Seyfert, speaking in a clear, resonant voice, reviewed the case briefly and scored the prosecutors for the manner in which they "wrong" a confession from Snook.

Then he swung into an attack on Theora Hix whom, he said, he was "forced" to assail by the very nature of the case.

"I would like to say peace to her ashes," said Seyfert, "but I cannot do so with the life of a man at stake. I am forced to throw aside the mantle of charity and call your attention to the facts."

"She has to be ridiculed, to be pictured as she was. She was the type that was quiet but sneaky," Seyfert declared that Dr. Snook and his wife were a happy married couple until Miss Hix came into his life in June, 1928.

"She was then 22 and he was 46," he declared. "She attracted him and went out with him although she knew he was married."

Classified Police "Wolves." Seyfert told the jury that if Snook had not killed Miss Hix, she would have slain Mrs. Snook and her baby.

"She warned Dr. Snook she would do it," he asserted. Pounding a table, he assailed Prosecutor John J. Chester, Jr., as "an octopus, a sea devil with nine arms."

He charged the police who helped Chester get the confession from Snook as "wolves."

"They are trying to send Dr. Snook to the chair on trumped-up testimony," Seyfert shouted.

Seyfert portrayed Snook as a man who was led on by a woman much younger than himself, who finally "dominated" him. He declared that Snook "was no Jekyll-Hyde" and certainly "no fiend."

Strong Republican Ticket

Headed by Robert B. Stevenson, a carpenter-contractor, a strong Republican ticket was named for the November 5 battle in yesterday's primaries in which the Democrats selected as their mayoral nominee Ralph C. Benedum, pharmacist, who is now serving his second term.

The G. O. P. choice for the mayor's place was a winner in a ten-man contest, which was a clean fight in every sense of the term, while the Democratic nominee was named in a two-cornered battle in which a record municipal primary vote was registered by the followers of Jefferson.

Nominee Stevenson, a student of municipal affairs, is fully cognizant of the importance of the office which he will seek in the fall election, and is qualified in every respect for the place. He has served as a member of council, and is now completing a four-year term as a member of the board of education.

Others honored on the Republican ticket were: President of council, Samuel B. Burgess, a former member of the law-making body; auditor, William McGraw, incumbent; treasurer, John Stamm, who has served in the office in bygone years; solicitor, Walter S. Stevenson; councilmen-at-large, Raymond Chambers, Ray Adam and George A. Hughes; ward councilmen, Walter K. McClelland, Edgar Heddleston, George Boice and Charles E. Gilbert; municipal judge, George Brokaw, and municipal court clerk, A. Earl Edwards, incumbent.

The Republican nominees, from mayor to ward councilmen, are the choice of the majority of their party for the management of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of the municipal government during the term beginning January 1. They are representative men, who merit the support of their fellow citizens at the polls next fall. Their election will mean a business administration in East Liverpool.

Television

Television has reached that stage in its development where it is beginning to claim public attention. It is by no means perfected, yet C. Francis Jenkins, the engineer who has been chiefly instrumental in the work, insists that small sets, the size of radio cabinets, will be in use this autumn.

The effect on popular amusements may be profound. The owners of motion picture theaters are known to be watching the progress of television with some apprehension. What will happen when talking pictures, theatrical performances and grand opera can be reproduced in the home?

Only small black and white pictures will be broadcast at first, and only a few people will be able to get close enough to the miniature screen to see the motion pictures. But steady progress is predicted until the movies are rivaled by the radio picture—perhaps in five years.

What will be the final outcome? Evidently there are great possibilities in the broadcasting of news events. In the next presidential campaign we are told we shall see the candidates, as well as hear them. While we listen to descriptions of football games or games in the world series, we may be able to see the plays. Boat races, celebrations, army maneuvers all will be brought within our range of vision.

The question of where the revenue to maintain television is to come from has not been widely discussed. But there is a suspicion that the manufacturers would like to experiment with licensing sets, instead of selling them. That is the practice with radio sets in England, and produces a dependable revenue to pay for broadcasting.

Apparently the chief certainty in the situation is that a transforming invention is on the way; that its effects may upset some business institutions and develop others; just how and where and when still is a matter of speculation.

Receding Saturation Point

Wonderful development of the motor car industry in the United States is brought out strikingly by the announcement of the automotive division of the federal department of commerce, that, of the grand total of 32,028,500 cars in the world, 28,551,500, or more than 90 per cent, were manufactured in the United States. America is represented by 24,167,000 passenger cars and 3,934,500 trucks. Almost every other motor car outside continental United States and Canada, the announcement states, is American-made.

As far back as 1922 there was talk about the saturation point in the motor car industry and how far it might be away. It is interesting in this connection to note that there was at the end of that year an estimated registration of 14,618,944, which is less than half the number of cars in operation at the beginning of the present year. During the same period the increase in cars operated in the United States has been 12,390,068, or 100 per cent, as there were 12,139,853 cars in operation at the close of 1922 and 24,629,921 in operation at the end of 1928.

The increase in the use of motor cars in the world outside of this country was 5,019,572, or 210 per cent over the total of 2,378,091 in use in 1922, during the same period.

And despite this immense increase in the use of motor cars, there is no better indication of the whereabouts of the saturation point today than there was seven years ago.

"The automobile industry in the United States," the announcement goes on to say, "outtranks all other manufacturing industries." Automobiles also rank first in exports of manufactured products from the United States. Exports alone from the United States and Canada nearly equal the combined production of the rest of the world.

HASKIN LETTER DAILY

By Frederic J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 14.—The intrinsic importance of peace between Bolivia and Paraguay lies in the fact that a struggle would inevitably bring about foreign complications. Both countries abounding in natural resources but populated by a pastoral rather than an industrial, mechanical, and progressive people, exploitation has naturally fallen to foreigners. So the military disturbances would cause great uneasiness to the foreign owners of properties in these countries. It is customary for European governments, the investments of whose nationals are threatened, to intervene for the purpose of protecting those interests. So far as the Western Hemisphere is concerned it is equally customary for the government of the United States, pursuant to the Monroe Doctrine, to undertake the policing of disturbances exclusively and to resist any movement on the part of a foreign nation toward participation in American affairs. Therein lies the danger in the present situation and the responsibility.

The latest estimates show $164,000,000 of foreign capital invested in Bolivia. The United States citizens own the lion's share with $82,000,000 of investments. But the United States rarely sends troops into foreign countries to protect American dollars. It is, however, quick to act to uphold the Monroe Doctrine. The American investment in Bolivia is some $30,000,000 in government bonds, $40,000,000 in mining properties, and $22,000,000 in railroads, oil and miscellaneous investments.

Great Britain comes next with $43,000,000 chiefly in railroads, oil, and trade. The French have investments of some $10,000,000 in mines and public utility enterprises. Other European countries have lesser investments.

Chile, Bolivia's neighbor on the southwest, has some $15,000,000 invested in mines and oil properties. Nearly all European countries and also China, Japan, and India have trade relations with Bolivia. The country has been showing a favorable balance of trade of some 50,000,000 bolivianos a year, the boliviano being about 35 cents in United States money. Great Britain takes most of Bolivia's exports—in fact that country receives from Bolivia four times as much as all other nations put together. As recently as 1922 the United States received four-fifths as much as Great Britain but our trade has diminished. However, the United States leads as the source of Bolivia's imports, with Great Britain second.

Bolivia's public debt is relatively small and in fairly good shape. It amounts to only 32,700,000 bolivianos, little more than the tin profits for one year. The Argentine Republic heads the list of investors in Paraguay with 30,000,000 Argentine gold pesos, the peso being equivalent to 96½ cents in United States money. Great Britain comes next with 20,000,000 pesos. France and the United States have some 5,000,000 pesos each invested.

The war waged by Dictator Lopez in 1865-70 left Paraguay destitute of men and money. With difficulty two loans were placed amounting to about $15,000,000. Both had to be sold at a heavy discount. They were chiefly purchased in England. The interest payments soon were in default and one measure resorted to by the Paraguayan government, among others, was the granting to debtors on account of the arrears patents to 145 acres of land for each $500 of unpaid coupons held. In the aggregate this amounted to a great deal of territory which now is owned by foreigners. Some of this is in the Chaco Boreal, the territory under dispute between Bolivia and Paraguay. Obviously, the foreign owners, mostly British, will be keenly interested in what happens to their titles in the event Bolivia is accorded the basic title to territory in which Paraguay has made grants. Bolivia also has made various land grants to foreigners in this disputed field.

So it will be seen that should the Commission of Inquiry and Conciliation, now nearing completion of its work on the settlement of the 300-year old boundary dispute between Paraguay and Bolivia fail in its efforts to bring about a peaceable settlement, many nations will find their interests closely touched. As failure has leered around the corner at every previous attempted settlement, the issue this time is being watched with unfeigned interest.

Therefore, all things considered, wily appears on its surface to be a local and almost petty boundary dispute has wide and deep implications harboring a threat of world-wide importance.

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

By O. O. McIntyre.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—The modern girl's independence and snub for the usual conventions is conspicuously illustrated in her freedom from escorts. She is no longer squirmed about with the fluttering attention suggesting a hot house flower. She travels alone and without smiling sales.

Her boy friend these days does not call to accompany her to a party, theater or cafe. She meets him in the reception rooms, thus giving her more time at home for primping. Distances in New York are great and this is largely responsible for the new arrangement.

A young gentleman, say in Greenwich Village, escorting a lady from the upper reaches of the Bronx to a midtown theater, faces not only a problem in time but a problem in finance. Even at a modest estimate the taxi fare in such an emergency is around $10.

Today he escorts her to the subway, elevated or taxi and after lighting a cigarette off she goes alone. On almost any side street late at night will be found girls swinging along by themselves, totally unconscious of the dangers that used to be stressed.

Statistics show unprotected girls are rarely molested these days along highways after nightfall. Many have proved they know exactly what to do in the case of an attack. Even daylight pursues a matching has dwindled to almost nothing.

What inspired these rambling observations was the remark of a taxi driver last night. He had just delivered a girl to her home on the upper East side when I hailed him and was chuckling—a contrast to the usual sullenness of the metropolitan charioteers.

"I just picked up a skirt in front of a downtown theater," he explained. "When we came to the park I knew about lone women taking a hold up so I had for Fifth avenue. She rapped on the window and cried: Go through the park. I have a police whistle!"

The police whistle is on sale in several department stores and

GREAT SCENES IN "NOAH'S ARK"

One of the most interesting scenes ever filmed is the great flood which sweeps away the Temple of Jaghut in Warner Bros. spectacular "Noah's Ark," now at the American theater.

More than 14,000 tons of water were used to make this scene realistic. Great tanks of concrete were erected in the hills above the studio and, at a flash from Director Curtiz, the flood gates were opened.

First the water began to trickle down, then it grew in volume, the rain descended on the lot, and soon the awful power of an actual flood was sweeping across the land and carrying everything before it.

This is but one of the impressive scenes that Warner Bros. have incorporated in "Noah's Ark."

Darryl Francis Zanuck wrote the story, Dolores Costello is the star with George O'Brien as the hero.

"BUDDY" ROGERS ON CERAMIC BILL

"River of Romance," Charles (Buddy) Rogers' starring vehicle, will open a three-day run at the Ceramic theater tomorrow.

"River of Romance," based upon the famous Booth Tarkington play, "Magnolia," has everything that is desirable in a talking picture. It has a gripping plot, actors who can talk and wear period costumes, local atmosphere and a romantic theme that rolls softly through the colorful scenes of southern life in the 1840's like the languid "Father of Waters" itself.

It is a new kind of role for Buddy Rogers. He appears as a soft-mannered youth who returns to his paternal home in a Mississippi plantation to be confronted with the brusque and bewildering code of duels and feuds and "honnub, sub." Refusing to fight a duel he is branded a coward. He comes back, though in startling fashion, eventually winning the girl who had loved him through it all. Mary Brian is bewitching as the demure southern girl who loves Buddy, and June Collyer, as the coquette, is effective. Excellent character work is furnished by Wallace Beery, Fred Kohler, Mrs. George Fawcett, Henry B. Walthall and Natalie Kingston.

Rogers' voice has a happy quality of youthful freshness and vigor with Miss Brian intones her lines with engaging intelligence. The sound background of river life and plantation days is pleasingly injected into the play by Richard Wallace, the capable director.

During a recent week-end in England 11 people were killed in auto accidents and 17 in motorcycle crashes.

Mr. N. C. Norman, Victim of Stomach Trouble, Says Gas Pains Around Heart Kept Him Up Half The Night — Palpitation, Pains and Unsteady Beat of Heart Almost Drove Him Wild — O. K. Now, Thanks to "ORANGE ROOT."

Mr. N. C. Norman, of R. F. D. No. 2, Wellsville, Ohio, near East Liverpool, had such awful attacks of indigestion, thought his heart would stop beating. Mr. Norman is very well known here, being a farmer and substantial citizen of Wellsville. He says:

"I have suffered awful agonies with stomach trouble or indigestion, everything I ate seemed to turn to rocks in my stomach; gas would form and shoot all around my heart, causing sharp pains, shortness of breath and irregular heart action. Several times during the night I thought I was a goner. I tried everything, but never got relief till I started taking ORANGE ROOT and the golden Nuggets. I would sit up half the night, too scared to go to sleep. After taking part of the first bottle I noticed the gas pains letting up, and the bloating going down. Now that I have taken 3 bottles and a few of those golden Nuggets, I AM A WELL MAN ENTIRELY and don't know what it is to suffer any more. My heart is beating normally, I can eat anything I choose, and it doesn't hurt me the least bit. "When I go to bed I can sleep all night long, and get up in the morning completely rested and refreshed, and ready for the day's work. This great ORANGE ROOT has relieved me of suffering of 20 years standing, and I am telling all my friends just what a wonderful medicine it really is. It has increased my strength wonderfully and I can work hard all day long and NEVER get tired. The golden Nuggets are great laxative, and liver regulators, for since taking them I do not have any more headaches, dizzy spells, sluggishness or tired feeling."

If you are bothered with indigestion, rheumatism, neuritis, nervousness, kidney weakness, or in a rundown condition with no pep or appetite, for goodness sake, go at once to MATHEWS MEDICINE STORE, get a treatment of 3 bottles of the tonic, a box of the golden Nuggets, take them according to directions, and you too, will soon be back on the road to HEALTH. NEWELL STRENGTHENS HOLD ON FIRST PLACE

Pollock Wins 6-4 Contest

Hap Jackson is Thorn in Side of Former Mates.

RAPPING End Sainor's slants pretty hard in the first and third innings when they scored all of their runs, the Homer Laughlin club last night strengthened its hold on first place in the Inter-City league as the result of a 6 to 4 victory over Wellsville.

Eight of the 10 Laughlin bingles were bunched in these two frames and did the damage.

Ray Pollock curved them for the pace setters, limiting the visitors to six hits.

Tony Ranaldi had on his batting logs last night, swatting a single, a double and a triple in three trips to the plate. Tobin, former Community league star, led the Wellsville hitters with a pair of safeties in three attempts.

Billy Watson's running catch of Sainor's fly in the fourth, Dugman's shot of George Wagner's drive in the fifth and a double killing by Canne, Tobin and Talbot for Wellsville in the fourth were the fielding flashes.

Hap Jackson, former Wellsville outlander, made his first appearance in a Laughlin uniform last night. Jackson asked for and was given his release recently by the Wellsville club. He helped defeat his former mates by crashing out a single in the opening frame to score two men ahead of him.

Wellsville counted two runs in the first. Davis led off with a walk, took second on Watson's sacrifice, went to third on G. Wagner's hit through Finley and scored with Mosser, who came in for Ranaldi's short throw on Wagner's steal, got the ball and tossed to second with nobody covering the bag. Wagner went out third and finished on Cal Wagner's putout at first.

But the West Virginians came up scrapping in their half of the same frame and scored four runs. Watson got a walk and moved up on Mosser's sacrifice. Finley singled to left but Davis threw to the plate, held Watson at the hot corner. Finley went to second on the throw-in but both he and Watson finished on Dugman's single over short. Ranaldi singled down the third-base line, Dugman stopping at third and both reached the plate on Jackson's single to center.

Wellsville made it 4-3 in the second, Canne and Tobin singled and advanced on Males's sacrifice. Canne counting as Sainor was thrown out at first.

The visitors denuded the game in their half of the third. Johnny Watson led off with a single to center, went to second on G. Wagner's sacrifice and reached home on Talbot's double to center.

With the count tied at 4-4, Laughlin came through with a timely rally which netted two runs and the victory. This happened in the last of the third. Finley started it with a two-bagger to left and Ranaldi socked another two-base swat to score Finley. Davis' throw got by Males and Ranaldi went to third, scoring on Jackson's infield single.

A's May Be Having Trouble But They're Still Winners

Hale and Foxx Hit Homers to Aid in Beating Tigers; Indians Stop Yanks Again.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 14.—"A little dissension is just the thing. The boys fight—then make the base hits ring."

All of which is reported to be Connie Mack's rather twisted version of the poet's words. For while rumors fly that Mr. Mack's athletes amuse themselves after the game by playfully hitting one another on the nose, they still manage to win ball games.

Yesterday, thanks to Hale's first home run of the year and Jimmy Foxx's 27th they whipped Detroit 4 to 3, taking the series and increasing their lead over the Yanks to 12½ games.

Cleveland waited until the ninth inning to wreck the Yanks. With the Indians trailing by two runs Hodapp elected to get his triple for the day. Two men being on when the three base blow came the Yanks blew another, 3 to 2. Ferrell, youthful Indian, flinging find, turned in a neat job on the hill.

The Red Sox celebrated their final appearance of the season in the National League.

Chester To Book Agathons

Seek Famous Massillon Club for Saturday Tilt.

LES McMATH, manager of the Chester Inter-City league club, today was to complete negotiations with George Textor, manager of the famous Massillon Agathons, for an exhibition game Saturday afternoon at Smith Field, Chester.

The Agathons are scheduled to play Saturday night at Midland and will meet the local team in an afternoon contest.

McMath and Textor were to communicate sometime today to smooth out details for the contest.

All Outdoors

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 12.—The report of the Pennsylvania game commission, each year, shows a most remarkable increase in game, disclosing at the same time the economic value of the wild life of the Keystone state. Twenty-five years ago, Pennsylvania was short of more wild game than any state in the union. The system of combined game refuges and public shooting grounds has maintained an ever-increasing supply of game, and hunting is becoming a popular sport for the people of that state.

Two years ago the hunting license fee was raised from $1.25 to $2.00 with the approval of the sportsmen at large. Pennsylvania sportsmen realize that they can no longer get $50 worth of sport for a $1.00. They are willing to pay more, as the 75 cent increase is used for purchasing more refuges and more hunting grounds. Pennsylvania now has 38 refuges comprising a total of 170,000 acres, besides 65 auxiliary refuges and public shooting grounds aggregating 100,000 acres. These refuges are restocked annually with game.

At Alexandria Bay in the north western part of New York state along the St. Lawrence river there is good musky fishing. Few Ohio folks look for muskies in New York but they are there never-the-less. Bass, pike and pickerel are also plentiful there. By auto the route is Buffalo, to Rochester, via Watertown to Clayton. The Alexandria Bay Chamber of Commerce will gladly advise as to guides. It is a good place to stop for fishing on a vacation trip east through New York.

It's not far to West Virginia from Ohio. Great Capon river in Morgan county furnishes good bass fishing and Parsons in Tucker county is located near trout fishing. There is good trout fishing in the Elk river.

FINISHER NINE BOWS TO COKE'S

Winners Now Only Half Game Out of First Place.

MIDLAND, Pa., Aug. 14.—Bunching four hits in the fourth with a passed ball, the Coke Planters of the Crucible Steel circuit came from behind to top the Finishers, 6 to 3, last night.

The Cokers chased Brackenridge from the hilltop during the rally and was relieved by Bope. The latter held the Cokers at bay there after.

Connors' work at second base was an outstanding defensive feature. Concrete and Miller topped the Finishing Mill sticklers. Thompson led the Coke offensive with a triple and a double.

As a result of the win the Cokers move up to within a half game of the Open Hearths, in first place. The Furnace men have won six and lost three, the Cokers five and three. The Service nine is in third place with four and six and the Finishers last with three and six.

INTER-CITY LEAGUE

Wellsville club of the Inter-City circuit, defeated last night by Laughlin, will be fighting tonight and Friday to stage a comeback in the second-half flag race.

Tonight the Nicholson nine collides with Chester on the Wellsville lot. On Friday they tackle the Kates, their most dangerous rival for the second place berth they now hold.

As a result of their victory last night Laughlin increased its first place lead to a game and a half over the Wellsville club.

LEIBOLD OUTFIT SLIPPING

Columbus One and a Half Games Out of Seventh.

Following in the footsteps of her illustrious mother, Dorothy Bundy added 12, daughter of Mrs. May Sutton Bundy of Santa Monica, California, won her first round match in a major tournament at Rye, N. Y. Despite her youth Dorothy defeated Mrs. Marquis James, 6-4, 6-2.

Though there were only two games played in the American Association pennant race yesterday, they served to bring out a most illuminating fact, namely, that only one and a half games separate the Columbus Senators from a slide into seventh place.

Sport writers have been so long heralding Columbus for a higher berth than the sixth place it is now occupying, that Milwaukee's climb has come about unnoticed.

The Toledo-Kansas City game ended at the sixth inning on account of rain and darkness. The score was then 9 to 1, and need less to say, Kansas City was leading.

Standings remained unchanged. Briefly, they are: Kansas City first; St. Paul, second; Minneapolis, third; Indianapolis, fourth; Louisville, fifth; Columbus, sixth; Milwaukee, seventh and Toledo, eighth and last.

AT LOS ANGELES, Calif.—Tom Hawkins, San Diego negro heavyweight, won from George Godfrey, Leipsville, Pa., on a foul (3).

AT CINCINNATI, O.—Mike O'Dowd, Columbus, retained his claim to the featherweight crown by a decision over John Datto, Cleveland (10).

Golden Stars Trim Grandview Nine, 9-2

Dairymen Put on Big Attack in Fifth to Sew up Game With Six-run Rally.

Largely as a result of a fifth inning rally which netted six markers, the Golden Stars of the Community loop defeated the Grandview A. C. Chester, last night at Anderson Acres. The count was 9 to 2.

The Grandview broke the ice in the first frame when one run crossed the plate. The Stars were unable to do anything with Cochran's curves until the third and then a pair of runners made the circuit, giving the Dairymen a one-run advantage.

This they increased to two in the succeeding frame but the big deluge came in the fifth when the Stars sewed it up with a six-run onslaught.

The Stars collected only seven safe bingles off Cochran but took advantage of breaks and made their bingles count.

Vanaman pounded out a pair of swats to lead the Grandview clubbers. L. Hall got a brace of safeties for the Stars.

Beech's throw to the plate to cut off a runner was one of the fielding highlights of the engagement. Lyons was on second and streaked for home when Vanaman hit one to the Dairymen's rightfielder. Beech fielded the ball and popped accurately to Woolley and Lyons was thrown out.

SOFTBALL RESULTS

Grocers Defeat Florists.

The Laneve Grocers defeated the Golden Flowers, 3 to 2, last night in a 10-inning tilt at West End. Laneve and Webb turned in some excellent defensive work for the Laneves while Jester and Banks starred for the losers. Loran Howard's triple to center with Horton on base produced the winning marker in the extra frame.

Golden Stars 000 000 020 0-2 6 1 Laneve 000 011 000 1-3 9 0 (Wurzel and Nolan; Laughlin and Jester).

Newell Service defeated the Y. M. C. A. in a ten-inning game at West End park last night by the score of 5 to 0. The game was air tight until the tenth frame when Newell fell on Beckett for five. Horton on base produced the winning marker in the extra frame. R. H. E. Newell 000 000 000 5-5 10 1 Y. M. C. A. 000 000 000 0-0 3 1 (V. Bailey and J. Laneve; Beckett and White).

Three-Cent Increase In County Tax Levy

Commissioners Fix
Rate at $1.11 on $100
Valuation as Other Units Boost Figures.

CHESTER, W. Va., Aug. 14.—
Hancock county tax levy was fixed at $1.11 on $100 of property valuation yesterday at a special meeting of the county commissioners at New Cumberland. This is an increase of three cents over last year.

The boost was prompted by the fact that the state levy was raised from 13 to 19 cents, while a special levy of 10 cents was necessary to cover losses sustained by the failure of the New Cumberland bank.

Chester city levy was boosted from 37 cents to 50 cents, while the board of education of the Chester independent district found it necessary to raise the figures from $1.44 to $1.52, an increase of eight cents over last year.

The county assessment was based on a total valuation of $25-101,992, divided as follows: Real estate, $17,836,160; personal property, $4,106,190; public utilities, $3,159,642.

The levy as apportioned by the commissioners follows: General county, 24; county road maintenance, 15; Grant district road
No. 1, 13; Grant district road
No. 2, 10; county bridges, 1; court house bonds, 4; bank assessment, 10; state, 19.

The figures for last year were:
General county, 27; county road maintenance, 25; Grant district roads, 15; Grant district road bond issue No. 1, 13; Grant district bond issue No. 2, 10; county

LEEPER FAMILY REUNION HELD AT HOOKSTOWN

Ohio, West Virginia
And Pennsylvania Represented.

DINNER AT NOON
James Leeper Came To America From Scotland.

Descendants of the late James Leeper held their third annual reunion at the home of Robert Leeper, about one mile south of Hookstown, Pa., yesterday. With members present from Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania and other states, they decided to organize the Leeper Family association.

Dinner was served at noon following which addresses were made by the Rev. Archibald Little, D.
D., of Denver, Col.; the Rev. J. H.
Littell, D. D., of New York City;
Dr. Frank Little, of Dayton, O.;
Miss Mary Leeper, of Asheville, N.
C., the daughter of the Rev. Hugh Leeper, of Bergholz, Ohio, who for 40 years previous to moving to the south was pastor of the Yellow Creek Presbyterian church; William Andrews, of Beaver, Pa.; Hugh Leeper, near Mill Creek, Pa., and others.

Head of Family Settled in York, Pa.
In addition to making an address,
Miss Mary Leeper gave a reading.
She visited the north briefly in March, when she accompanied the body of her father, 87 years old, to the Yellow Creek cemetery where he was buried. Her brother, Dr.
Donald Leeper, lives near Asheville.

The family originated with James Leeper, who came to America from Scotland in 1748. He settled in York county, Pa., before coming to the spot on which the reunion was held. He built the house now occupied by his grandson, Robert Leeper, in 1804.

For a time he lived on land originally ceded to George Washington.
The latter, tradition has it, was fined for alleged profane language used in trying to get squatters off of some of his property in the region in which he then lived.

Leeper had 11 children, his wife being Nancy McLeary, of York county, Pa. They were Robert, James, John, William, Hugh, Margaret, Susanna, Nancy, Isabella, Annie and Mary Leeper. He died in 1814 in his sixty-sixth year.

Hugh Leeper, the fifth son of this couple, who immediately preceded in birth his six sisters, an unusual family record in itself, was married in 1818 to Esther Harper. They settled on a farm in Frankfort Springs, Pa. After 13 years they moved to a farm two miles east of Hookstown, Pa. In 1840 they moved to the place where the reunion was held.
They had 15 children born to them in 21 years of whom 12 lived to adult life. They were: Jane, James, Samuel, William, John Anderson,
Robert, Mary Ann, Archibald, Harriet, Amanda, Joseph Harper and Hugh. For 30 years the elder Leeper filled the office of ruling elder in the Associate Presbyterian church at Tomlinson's Run and afterwards in the United Presbyterian church in Hookstown, Pa. He and his wife are buried in Beaver Pa.

Kin of Family in Ohio
From Harriet, of his daughters, are descended many East Liverpool people, she having married the late Matthew Andrews. They were the parents of Mrs. Willie Gaston, Frank Andrews, who died in California two years ago; William of Beaver, Pa.; Thomas and Joseph Harper of the American Porcelain company of this city; Mrs. J. C.
McQuilkin, who a few weeks ago returned to her home in Long Beach, Calif. after visiting here;

Mrs. W. J. Curry and Mrs. Richard Manor of this city. All of these with their husbands and wives were in attendance at the reunion.

William Leeper, a brother of the late Mrs. Matthew Andrews and the fourth son of Hugh Leeper, was educated for the ministry but found that his voice would not admit of his preaching. He went to Tennessee and then to Arkansas where he married Miss Priscilla Macon.

He found it obligatory to enter the Confederate army under the circumstances. For this departure he was ostracized by his brothers and sisters living in the north.

After the close of the war reconciliation was had and he visited his relatives in the scenes of his boyhood.

He became one of the prominent educators of his locality in Arkansas and the editor of the Malvern Meteor. He lived to an old age and was said to have been active as the superintendent of the Hot Springs County schools when 90 years of age. His children, whom there were six, have numeous descendants in the south-west.

Hugh Leeper Died in 1857.
Another son of Hugh Leeper was the Rev. Joseph Leeper, who for several decades was the pastor of the Calcutta church. He later entered national reform work and died in California.

The Littell brothers, who were descendants from Mary Ann Leeper, are now visiting in the farm on which they were reared. Ther-two of their brothers, John and David, live. They had one sister who became a physician. She died a few years ago.

Perhaps the oldest of the immediate survivors of the family who were present at yesterday's outing was Mrs. Pollock Thompson of Calcutta, O. She is the daughter of Jane, the oldest child of Hugh Leeper.

Hugh Leeper died in 1857. He and Mrs. Leeper, the grandparents of the Andrews members of the family, are buried in the Service cemetery, a few miles beyond Hookstown, Pa.

An initial reunion was held on Aug. 30, 1893, by the family with several hundred persons present.
Then the Harper connection of the family wore red ribbons, the Purdy connections white and the Leeper blue ribbons as a means of identity.

A band was in charge of the music for the occasion.

Farm Club Meets Thursday.
Members of the Grandview 4-H club will meet tomorrow night in the school building.

Allison Gets Coal Contract.
W. C. Allison was awarded the contract for furnishing coal for the Chester schools during the coming winter. A meeting last night of the board of education in the high school building.
